After May 26, just a week from today, every person passing between El Paso and Juarez will have to show one of three things: A vaccination certificate, a properly scarred arm, or a pitted face, Such is the understanding mutually made Thursday morning between Dr. W. H. Anderson, city physician; Dr. H. S. White, county physician, and Dr. Castillo, representing the health department The action will be taken as a preventative to a smallpox epidemic, but in no way is the result of any material fears of an epidemic. Officials report but few cases on either side of the river The proposed system, it is hoped, will force inter-civic transients to take the prescribed precaution against the plague, But Two Cases in El Paso. According to reports made by Dr. Anderson, there are but two cases in El Paso, both children and confined at

When seen Thursday morning jefe lay in announcing the results. politico Francisco Portillo, of Juarez, expressed doubt that there were more united with the regulars on the railroad cases in Juarez than in El Paso, offering for inspection a recently compiled list. The report shows eight cases ortween March 1 and May 18, Wednesday last. Of the eight, two children died, two adults have recovered, and three are convalescing. The majority of the cases were confined in the country or cinated. The work was conducted by an El Paso health board representative, assisted in finding his subjects by the immigration inspectors, but was conducted in no way as a quarantine. It has disclosed some idea of the ratio of transients unvaccinated. All Are Warned. Immigration inspectors have begun warning Mexicans of the requirements which will be in vogue after May 18. That date was set both with the view of giving the citizens of both cities full warning and of allowing time for any development of the disease which may occur. American visitors rez after May 26 doubtless will be compeled to show proofs of vaccination before being allowed to pass back to El
